GRAPES

Grapes are one of the most popular fruits in Hungary. There are countless varieties and we also have white, red and blue grapes. Therefore, it is only natural that it will occupy a prominent place in the revolutionary new beverage family.

SOUR CHERRY

The Hungarian sour cherry is world-famous, as there are also world-famous chocolate factories that use this fruit as a chocolate filling. We have the opportunity to work with cherries that have a particularly high content of useful substances for our body. The extract made from such fruit is a real „health bomb”, which, when mixed into our drinks, makes them truly unique.

APRICOT

Apricots are almost the best-known fruit in Hungary, housewives diligently make jam from them, which is a favorite of both young and old. The juice made from it pampers our taste buds. By supplementing the fruit juice with the fruit pomace extract, we get the brand new apricot drink, with substances useful for our body.

HONEY

Beekeeping has serious traditions in Hungary. Everyone knows that honey is very healthy. Drinks made with honey pleasantly caress the throat and suggest a feeling of health to consumers. We want to make our honey drinks even healthier with apitherapeutic ingredients.
